"THE HOUSE DETECTIVES" TO PRESENT TALK AS PART OF DISCOVER AUBURN SERIES

"The House Detectives" will be the subject of the second lecture in the Discover Auburn series, to be held Thurs. Oct. 29 at 3:00 pm in the Special Collections and Archives Department of the Ralph Brown Draughon Library.

Ralph Draughon Jr., Delos Hughes, and Ann Pearson have dubbed themselves "The House Detectives." They will discuss their ongoing quest for photos of Auburn houses that no longer exist.

Discover Auburn is a year-long series that features programs on research, history, and other topics of interest by Auburn faculty, staff, and graduates. The series will continue on Oct. 29 with a talk by Dr. Charles Israel entitled "Evolution Proven: The Curious Development of American Anti-Evolution."

A reception will follow the program. The Discover Auburn series is co-sponsored by the Caroline Marshall Draughon Center for the Arts and Humanities in the College of Liberal Arts at Auburn University and the Auburn University Libraries. For more information on the program and the series, contact the Center at 334.844.4946 or visit www.auburn.edu/cah.
